JOINT MOTION TO AMEND SUMMARY JUDGMENT BRIEFING SCHEDULE

The parties in the above-captioned action, by their counsel, submit this joint motion to extend the schedule for summary judgment briefing by one week.

Defendants have been seeking the deposition of John Perry, who submitted an affidavit on behalf of plaintiffs to the Court. To accommodate the scheduling needs of plaintiffs' counsel, defendants have agreed to postpone John Perry's deposition until July 22, 2004. This will leave only four business days between the end of this deposition and the current deadline for filing motions for summary judgment, which is July 28, 2004. Accordingly, the parties jointly move for a one-week extension of the summary judgment deadline to August 4, 2004 so that they will have sufficient time to prepare and file their motions upon the completion of depositions.

If the Court allows this request, the parties then also jointly move that the Court amend the deadline for the parties to file their opposition to summary judgment motions, which currently is August 13, 2004. The parties believe they will need two weeks, or until August 18, 2004, to prepare and file those oppositions.

WHEREFORE, the parties jointly request that the Court amend the case management schedule so that motions for summary judgment will be due on August 4, 2004, and oppositions to such motions will be due on August 18, 2004.

Respectfully submitted,
Plaintiffs,
